North NRD, a volunteer firefighter and a first responder for the past 8 years. The next individual is Linda Lund to the Foster Care Review Board. This is a reappointment for a three-year term; born in Minden, Nebraska, graduated from UNK, now lives in Ogallala. She was unable to appear personally and because of the distance Senator Matzke appeared in support of her appointment. She is a school counselor and psychologist at Ogallala Public Schools since 1977, a CASA volunteer, president-elect of the Nebraska School Psychologists Association, active in her local church, and coordinator of parenting classes in that area. The third is Sheila Heleck, a new appointment for a three-year term; born in Watertown, South Dakota, lives in Omaha, has a master degree...or is a master degree student in communications at UNO after being the mother of six children, active volunteer for children in both academic and sports. She is a local foster care review board member, formerly active in PRIDE Omaha. The fourth is Burrell Williams, a new appointment to a three-year term; born in Chicago, lives in Omaha, principal at Norris Middle School, which was my growing up neighborhood, has worked for the Omaha Public Schools since 1971, a graduate of Doane College in Crete, master's degree in education administration from UNO, local foster care review board member, and a member of the National Foster Care Review Board, served on the Omaha Gang Prevention Task Force, the Omaha Chapter of MAD DADS. The fifth is Carole Douglas, a new appointment for a three-year term; born in Detroit, Michigan, lives in Lincoln, a public health nurse for the last 30 years, currently is the Director of Public Health Nursing for Lancaster County Health Department, chair of local foster care review board, has a master's degree in public health from the University of North Carolina, serves on the Board of Directors for City Match and Lincoln Action Program. The last is Susan Gilmore, also to the Foster Care Review Board. It's a reappointment for a three-year term. She was unable to appear personally but Senator Dickey appeared in her behalf to support her appointment; born in Michigan, lives in Carroll, Nebraska. She and her husband own and manage the Farmers State Bank in Carroll; current Chair of the State Foster Care Review Board, elected to the Wayne Community County...or Community School Board, and a local foster care review board member since 1994. Madam President, I would submit these to the body for confirmation as presented. Thank you.
